

Employment Application

Is this the right job for you?

Below are a few of the requirements that you would be expected to meet if you decide to continue with the application process:

- Honesty - This should go without saying in any job, but we list it first because it is our number one requirement in dealing with guests, fellow employees and the company. This is our #1 priority on reference checks. Honesty in our business means accurate cash handling, proper use of tools and inventory controls. This also means that your friends and family do not receive food or services free, just as you would not expect free groceries from a friend who works in a grocery store.
- Drugs, Alcohol and Tobacco — Every employee has daily contact with our guests. We feel that the use of drugs, or alcohol is not conducive to good employer/employee or employee/guest relations. For this reason, we have a random drug-testing program at our locations. By signing this application you agree to participate in this program. For your safety and the safety of fellow employees and our guests, we have a zero tolerance policy for drugs and alcohol. If you have specific questions about the drug policy, ask the General Manager. Coming to work under the influence of drugs or alcohol, or the use of drugs, alcohol or tobacco in any manner while on duty is strictly forbidden and will result in immediate termination.
- Schedule — We expect you to work the days you are scheduled and to be on time. Tardiness and absenteeism are not acceptable. You should expect that due to the nature of our business, you will be required to work some evenings, weekends, summer months and holiday periods.
- Appearance — All employees are expected to wear the required uniform for the area assigned and comply with all grooming standards. No other dress is acceptable. Personal hygiene is very important because of the close contact with our guests.

Every Palace Entertainment employee has daily contact with our guests. Excellent people skills and courtesy are required at all times. If you do not enjoy working with people, this is not the job for you.

These guidelines are not complete and will be gone over in detail if you continue the application process. At the same time, realize that it is a responsibility of employment with Palace Entertainment. If you feel comfortable working under these guidelines, please continue with the employment application. If we can use your services, you will be contacted for an interview. Palace Entertainment is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY AND SIGN BELOW

1. Any acceptance of employment will be predicated upon the truthfulness of the written or verbal statements contained within this application and pre-employment process. I hereby authorize Palace Entertainment to thoroughly investigate my references, work record, education and other matters related to my suitability for employment. I further authorize the references I have listed to disclose to the company any and all letters, reports and other information related to my work records, without giving me prior notice of such disclosure. I understand that should my employer find that any statement I have made is not truthful, any job offer extended to me will be withdrawn and if employed, I may be subject to dismissal.
2. I authorize Palace Entertainment to confirm all the information contained in this application.
3. I understand this application is not to be construed or interpreted as a guarantee for employment for a specific time. I further understand that my employment with the organization does not constitute any form of contract, implied or expressed, and such employment will be terminable at will either by me or by Palace Entertainment with or without cause or advance notice.
4. I grant Palace Entertainment approval, after my termination of employment to release information which it may deem appropriate regarding my employment with or termination from the organization to anyone who has a reasonable basis for making such inquiry. So long as the information disclosed is not known by the organization to be inaccurate, the organization shall not incur legal liability of any nature in connection with the furnishing of such information. I release all parties and persons from any and all liability for any damages that may result from furnishing information related to this application to employer (or prospective employer) as well as from use of disclosure of such information by employer (or prospective employer) or any of its agents, employees or representatives.
5. I understand that my application for employment will be placed in an active status for a period of six (6) months during which time it will be reviewed as job openings occur in my area(s) of job interest. I also understand that should I wish to continue being considered for job openings beyond the six (6) month period, I must re-apply by (A) submitting a new application for employment or by (B) submitting a letter requesting renewal of my application and including an update of my qualifications (recent work history, educational achievements, etc.).
6. I acknowledge that I have read all of the above statements and that I understand them.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
- you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.
In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative formation. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.

- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-567-8688.
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:
